Response to Amendment

1. This is in response to an amendment file on March 24th, 2005. Claims 374-734 remain pending in the letter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 347-734 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hagen (U.S. PG Pub No. 2002/0075844) in view of Keskar et al (US 2004/0225791).

3. As per claims 374, 495, 616 and 663, Hagen teaches a system for use in a communication network and comprising: at least one first device; at least one second device; and a communication quality ameliorator including: a first interface providing first interaction with the at least one first device; and a second interface providing second interaction with the at least one second device being required to conduct certain communication only via communication quality ameliorator, the interaction including at least BLUETOOTH. Communication (see paragraphs 0005, 0007, 0014, 0039, 0042, 0045, 0054, 0057, 0058, 0069, 0093, 0143, 0145, 0161). Hagen et al fail an inventive concept of first interaction including at least BLUETOOTH communication. However, Keskar et al teach a first interaction including at least BLUETOOTH communication

Art Unit: 3621

(see paragraph 0015). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the inventive concept of Hagen et al's to include Keskar et al's first interaction including at least BLUETOOTH communication because this would have provided a useful system to allow a query by example to be performed while the user is viewing a particular item, allowing items related to the particular item to be returned

4. As per claims 375-494, 496-615, 617-662 and 664-734, they are dependent of claims 374, 495, 616, 663 and contains inventive concept disclose in Hagen disclosure. Therefore, they are rejected under the same rationale.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3621
